

Appropriate Testing for Children with Pharyngitis (CWP) - The percentage of children 2-18 years of age who were diagnosed with only pharyngitis, dispensed an antibiotic and received a group A streptococcus (strep) test for the episode.